

THE 9TH ANNUAL
BETHESDA LITERARY FESTIVAL &
THE BETHESDA LIBRARY
PRESENT OUR LOCAL AUTHORS

Saturday, April 18, 2009

1:00 PM Laura Krauss Melmed, author of The First Song Ever Sung and Capital! Washington From A to Z, will discuss her books.

Recommended for children ages 3-8 & their families.

2:30 PM Fred Bowen, author of children's books on sports and contributor to the Washington Post's Kids Page, will discuss his popular books.

A program for the whole family.

Sunday, April 19, 2009

1:00 PM Annette Curtis Klause, author of Blood and Chocolate and other books for teens. Showing excerpts from the movie, the author will comment on her books and the book to movie process.

Recommended for teens and up.

Bethesda Library, 7400 Arlington Road, Bethesda, MD 20814

For more information and program updates, call 240-777-0970 301-657-0840(TTY) or visit

www.montgomerycountymd.gov/content/libraries

All programs are free, open to the public, and for all ages.